Details of how you can change and cancel your booking and when refunds are available are set out in our Fare Conditions and on our websites.
- 15.2 You have rights and remedies under the Consumer Guarantees Act 1993 where our Services do not operate as they should. Nothing in this clause 15 affects any rights you may have under the Consumer Guarantees Act 1993, but there are circumstances where we will not generally be liable to you. We explain these below.
- 15.3 Subject to any rights you may have under the Consumer Guarantees Act 1993, we are not liable to you for:
- (a) any loss beyond our reasonable control or where we do provide the Services with reasonable care and skill, including for unforeseeable, indirect or consequential loss or damage arising out of or in respect of our Services;
 - (b) for any personal injury as defined in the Accident Compensation Act 2001, including death, physical injuries or mental injuries; and
 - (c) damage to Property from leakage, explosion, stains, soot or the effects of climate or the elements.

- 15.4 If a passenger contributes to any loss or harm they suffer, our liability to that passenger may be limited, for example where the passenger has acted negligently or in breach of these Conditions.
- 15.5 If you are in trade (as defined by the Consumer Guarantees Act 1993) and are acquiring our Services in trade, to the extent permitted by law, you agree that the Consumer Guarantees Act 1993 does not apply to the supply of those Services.

Limitation of liability for goods

- 15.6 We are not liable for any loss or damage to Property in excess of NZD$2,000 in accordance with section 259 of the Contract and Commercial Law Act 2017. Our liability for loss or damage to property may be further limited if you do not comply with these Conditions or you fail to take steps to eliminate the risk of loss, damage, or theft of your property, for example where you:
- (a) fail to lock a vehicle, or fail to remove, tie down, or secure loose equipment or property on a vehicle;
 - (b) fail to do all the things that a prudent owner of a vehicle or other property would do to that vehicle or property to minimise the risk of loss of, or damage to, or theft of, that vehicle or property;
 - (c) include in your property fragile or perishable articles, money, jewellery, silverware, negotiable papers, securities or other valuables, passports, or other identification papers; or
 - (d) fail to keep your Hand Baggage secure or fail to remove your Hand Baggage from the Service.

- 15.7 All timetables, schedules or other representations regarding the departure and arrival times of our Services are an indication only and do not bind us, and are subject to change without notice. We:
- (a) will try to tell you as early as possible where there are any changes, delays or cancellations to any of our Services;
 - (b) will use all reasonable efforts to carry a Passenger and Property in accordance with that Passenger's Ticket and on time, but the time of departure or arrival of any Service is at our discretion and will depend upon the operating situation. Subject to any rights passengers have under the Consumer Guarantees Act, we do not assume responsibility for a Passenger and/or Property making connections for other travel arrangements, or for meeting any appointment, engagement, deadline or any other obligation;
 - (c) are not liable for any loss or damage caused by failure or delay to take aboard or land a Passenger or Property as a result of circumstances beyond our reasonable control, such as bad weather or adverse sea conditions.

- 15.8 Because we cannot guarantee our schedules, departure times, or the duration of journeys, we strongly recommend that you have motor vehicle, personal or travel insurance to cover any circumstances that may arise (including cancellation fees, missed connections, medical and curtailment expenses, early departure from holiday due to death or illness, etc). Your insurance should provide cover against personal accident, medical expenses, emergency repatriation and personal liability.

Securing devices

- 15.9 To reduce the likelihood of loss or damage during a journey, we may use securing devices to stabilise or secure any Property.

15.10 We are not liable for any loss or damage to any Property, if that loss or damage is caused by the chafing or moving of securing devices attached to prevent loss or damage, unless we have acted negligently or in breach of the Consumer Guarantees Act 1993.

15.11 In attaching or fitting securing devices, we are not required to take into account the special requirements of any Property. Any special requirements will only be catered for at our absolute discretion and by prior arrangement.

Compliance with laws

15.12 You must comply with all Laws applicable to any of our Services. We are not liable for any loss or damage arising from your failure to comply with any such Laws or from what we reasonably believe is necessary to comply with any such Laws.

Errors, omissions and representations

15.13 We work hard to make sure any information we provide to you, whether it is a direct communication or anything we publish on our websites, is accurate and up to date. This includes information about our Services, schedules and departure times. However, errors or omissions can occur despite our best efforts. When these happen, we will do our best to correct them as quickly as possible. However, we will not typically be liable for errors or omissions where they are outside our reasonable control, such as where they are caused by third parties.

Extension of exclusion or limitation to agents, etc

15.14 To the extent permitted by law, any exclusion or limitation of our liability applies to and for the benefit of our employees, agents, representatives and contractors and to any Actual Carrier and to the Actual Carrier's employees, agents and representatives. The aggregate amount recoverable from us, the Actual Carrier and their employees, agents and representatives will not exceed the maximum amount of our liability.

Notice of claim

15.15 Notice of any claim against us in respect of the loss of or damage to Property carried on our Services must be given to us in writing within 30 days after the date on which our responsibility for that Property has ended and in accordance with sections 274 to 277 of the Contract and Commercial Law Act 2017.
